PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

Once again the Juried Awards Show has come and gone. Great to see Past President Sharon McKenna who made it in from Egansville. For those who missed the evening, it was as good as it gets: great food, great wine and great music...to say nothing of the great art on the walls... Here are the award winners for Spring 2012.

The Begum Mohammed Ali Trophy....Best Oil Painting

- 1st Valerie Black for "Deep Woods"
- 2nd Caroline Grimes for "The Rose Room"
- 3rd Leah Chodikoff for "Waterfall"

Honourable Mentions:

- 1st Claudia Urbach for "Autographs"
- 2nd Joseph Coban for "Another Chair from Morrisburg"

The O'Keefe Trophy....Best Acrylic Painting

- 1st Lydia Tambay for "Dana"
- 2nd Roy Brash for "Gelato"
- 3rd David Houlton for "The World at Rest"

Honourable Mention: Lise Massicotte for "Vent de desir"

The OAA Association Trophy....Best "Other Media"

- 1st Maryse Brunet Lalonde for "L'enfant prodige"
- 2nd Galina Ponomarenko for "September"
- 3rd Glenda Yates Krusberg for "Arboretum Forsythia"

Honourable Mention: Isabelle Ragout for "Chevalet en ballade"

The Blythe MacDonald Trophy....Best Watercolour

- 1st Christiane Kingsley for "The Protector"
- 2nd Diane Groulx for "Du Grand-Calumet, QC"
- 3rd Elaine Boivin for "Twilight Farm"

Honourable Mention: Jane Findley for "Wild Daisy"

Congratulations to all! If you have a photo of your work for the Gallery, forward it to Christiane at webgallerycoordinator@ottawaartassoc.ca. If not, please let her know.

Our next speaker will be Laurie Sponagle on "Maximum Tonal Results, Minimum Materials—Charcoal!"

Next OAA Meeting and Schedule

Tuesday, May 8, 2012

Executive Meeting 6:30 pm

Speaker Laurie Sponagle 7:30 pm

Heron Road Multi-Service Center, 1480 Heron

Next hanging

Sunday May 20, 2 to 2:30 pm

OLT Play: Dangerous Liasons, June 5 to 23

Join Laurie in an evening demonstration that will focus on exploring some of this traditional medium's techniques in a representational manner. We will be discussing the varieties of charcoal, application techniques on a variety of charcoal papers and other supports, and the tools associated with this medium.

Laurie's charcoal drawings and exhibition schedule may be viewed online at www.lauriesponagle.ca.

Ottawa Art Expo 2012, October 26-28, 2012, The St. Elias Centre, 750 Ridgewood Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario

The Capital's premier juried fine art event and the largest indoor art show in Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec! We are once again seeking highly skilled and creative professional artists to showcase their extraordinary talents at our fall show. Last year was a huge success with over six figures worth of art sold. This is a great opportunity to get your work seen, appreciated and purchased as well as an occasion to get further involved in your art community. The Ottawa Art Expo is a not for profit corporation that has "Artists working for artists." We are pleased to offer you a show with: no commission, fully draped booths with lighting and electrical, free admission and parking, opening night gala and awards presentation, and full year artist display and links on our website.

Deadline: May 31, 2012
