PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

I am honoured to serve you as President for the next two years. I would like to thank Brian Seed for his past service and for his willingness and openness to help me with the many questions I have.

The "Big Show" has been a big success. It looks great. There was very good participation by members.

The September hanging will also be unique. The Ottawa Little Theatre will be commemorating its 100th anniversary and asked us to help celebrate by providing paintings with a theme entitled Circa 1913. Josie Braden, our Gallery Coordinator, reports that about thirty members have so far indicated their intention to participate. If you have a themed piece and have not already done so, please contact Josie.

We have started to develop a number of ideas for speakers for the next couple of years. We welcome suggestions that you might have for topics and speakers. Please contact me, Bob Murrell, with your ideas.

In September our guest speaker will be Christopher Tinkler of Wallack's (Orleans). He will present a discussion of the colour theory of Diego Rivera, which can be described as an amalgamation of Raphael's colour harmony and impressionism.

Christopher's art training was completed at the Ontario College of Art and Design, Toronto campus and at their overseas campus in Florence, Italy where he developed an enduring interest in the masters of the late Gothic, Renaissance and Mannerist periods. He also has studied under and was deeply influenced by Carmen Cereceda, a renowned muralist from Chile. As a freelance artist, he has worked for various publications and has developed substantial versatility relative to portraiture, landscape painting, book illustration and graphic design.

I am very pleased to announce that Doreen Dyet has volunteered for the role of Assistant Treasurer and Anne-Marie Battis has volunteered as Newsletter

Editor. I would like to thank Doreen, Anne-Marie and all of the members who are volunteering so much of their valuable time and expertise to keep this organization functioning.
