PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

The lazy, hazy days of summer are behind us and we are now in what I think is the busiest season for artists, as we return from cottages and head back to our studios, classrooms and workshops. Plein air painters are scurrying to capture the quickly changing fall colours, trying to finish as many paintings as possible before the really cold weather arrives. There are shows to prepare for (don't forget the Member's Choice Awards on November 12), and of course preparations for the traditional December holiday season.

Next OAA Meeting and Schedule

| | |
|-----------------|------------------------|
| Next Meeting | Oct. 8, 7:30-9:30 pm |
| Next Hanging | Oct. 5, 10:00-10:30 am |
| OLT Play | |
| "Deadly Murder" | Oct. 15 to Nov. 2 |

Our guest speaker this month is Ted Johnston, a printmaker who specializes in wood cut prints, with many featuring architectural themes, although some display whimsy and political commentary. He will provide an overview of printmaking while focusing on his own specialty and method. His talk and selection of prints will illustrate the mutual importance of the art in the creation and the craft in the reproduction.

I have just received news that the elevator at the Heron Centre is being replaced and could be out of commission, beginning in the next few weeks until March 2014. This means people attending the meetings will need to walk up two flights of stairs to get to the amphitheatre. It is unfortunate that this is the situation for such a well-used public facility.

Gentle Reminders From Gallery Coordinator:

- Please check the back of your submissions -- be sure that pertinent information is clearly visible.
- Be sure the hanging support wire is not loose and no more than 1/3 down from the top.
- Please keep titles short so they can fit on the information cards.
- Please print clearly.
- Please keep a written record with dates of submitted work.

Thank you for your attention.
