PRESIDENT'S JOTTINGS by Deborah Czernecky

The Spring Awards Show was highly successful with over a 160 people attending. I would like to thank each and everyone of you who made it such a great evening!

I've received lots of positive feedback! Everyone was enthusiastic in their praise for a wonderful evening, especially the desserts! I would like to pass on their appreciation to all the people who contributed their time and effort to planning and running the event.

Since no one had any trouble in answering the trivia questions and claiming their door prizes, I promise to have more challenging questions next year! (just kidding!)

GALLERY SURFING THE OLD FASHIONED WAY

by Maria Mask

I recently went to see the retrospective of Peggy Nicol MacLeod's work at the Carleton University Gallery and realized what a treasure this gallery is for Ottawa. For anyone who is not familiar with the space - it is located in the St Patrick's Building (parking lot 6) and is open Tues-Fri, 10 to 5 and Sat/Sun, 12 to 5. Admission is free.

Upcoming exhibitions May 9th through Aug 29th, 2005 include:

1. Works on Paper by Kenneth

Lochhead, titled "Artist Unbound".

2. Photographs by Chantal Gervais - large scale photos of the human body. "The works bring into question notions of normalcy and difference and the relationship between self and other".

3. Struggle and Survival - The Priscilla Tyler and Maree Brooks collection of Inuit Art.
