PRESIDENT'S JOTTINGS

With another long, hot summer behind us, I welcome back all our members to another year of painting, exhibiting, and wonderful trips and visits to see us through 2007-2008. To start us off at our first monthly meeting, our guest speaker for September is John Alexander Day. He will be helping us hone our critical skills with an evening of critiquing. If, like me, you were struggling with all those summer greens and a harsh summer light and would like some advice on handling those issues (as well as others), bring two pieces on September 11th to hear some solutions from a master plein-air painter.

MEMBERSHIP DUES NOW DUE

At September's meeting, or by mail, you can renew your membership in the Ottawa Art Association. In June, a change in policy was announced, now offering a two-year membership for $40.00, or a one-year membership for $30.00. If renewing by mail, please make your cheque out to Ottawa Art Association, and send to Kerstin Peters at 1270 Kinsella Drive, Cumberland, ON K4C 1A9.

If you have had problems receiving your electronic newsletter, or you hear of someone else who has had problems recently, please inform Alberta Dickson (newsletter@ottawaartassoc.ca). She will follow this up for you. Meanwhile, please search on the website for the latest issue.

Lastly, here are two upcoming workshops sponsored by the Kanata Art Club:

Andrea Green of St. Lawrence College will instruct a two-weekend workshop inspired by Georgia O'Keefe's work. Part I: Sept. 22 & 23, "Meet Georgia O'Keefe" can be done in watercolour, acrylic or oils. Part II: Oct. 27 & 28, "When Georgia Meets Tom Thompson", is suitable for acrylics and oils. Fee is $200.00 for both weekends, or $110.00 for one weekend.

Stephen Rothwell will instruct a watercolour workshop Oct. 13 & 14. Using paper mounted over a canvas, framed without glass, artist takes advantage of wet-in-wet process to create spontaneous impressionistic paintings. Fee is $110.00.

For information on both workshops, contact Dorothy Hayter at (613)592-6639.
